

Meet the February Artist Joseph Baker

Meet Joseph Baker. Joseph began painting late in life and without formal training. He worked as an instructor of English for thirty-six years. Upon retirement, he became a member of the Bartlett Art Association and served two terms as Vice President. Working in a variety of media, he specializes in rural subjects and animals. He was a featured artist at WKNO, and his work has been displayed at such locations as St. Francis Hospital, Perkins Restaurants, Trezevant Manor, and West Clinic.
